

Category	%	Excellent 90 - 100	Good 80 - 89	Fair 73 - 79	Poor 0 - 72
Design
	25	Follows WDD design principles. Demonstrates high level of proficiency and application.	Follows most WDD design principles. Work demonstrates clear effort and application.	Follows some WDD design principles. Work can be improved upon with additional effort and application.	Fails to follow design principles covered in WDD degree.
Development
	25	Follows key development standards covered in the WDD degree.	Follows most key WDD development standards covered in the degree.	Follows some WDD development standards.	Fails to follow key WDD development standards covered in the degree.
Management
	15	Project Management met all expectations for current phase of production.	Project Management met most expectations for current phase of production.	Project Management met some expectations for the current phase. Additional effort and application can improve work in progress.	Project Management has not met the expectations for the current phase of production.
Specifications
	25	All project specifications for week have been met.	Most specifications for the week met.	Some specifications met or not delivered as expected.	Does not meet project specifications outlined for the week.
*Professionalism
	10	Note: Global professionalism is accumulated over time and takes into consideration timeliness, respectfulness, preparation, attentiveness, and compliance. Attendance and other factors related to overall professionalism affect the final assessment as well. Your overall work coherence and investment is factored each week.
Total Possible Points - 100

* GPS is worth 10% of your final grade. Professionalism is assessed each week and finalized the last week of class.